WEE? IT WASN'T ME!

Conversation starters:

- Have a look at the front cover of the book. Which animals can you name?
- Lenny is a ring-tailed lemur. Where do lemurs live in the wild?
- Think about a time that you had a holiday. What good/bad things happened?
- What do you know about North America? Can you find Alaska on a map?

Tongue Twisters: Try these lemur-tastic tongue twisters! Can you make up your own tongue twisters based on your favourite animal?

'Wee? It wasn't me!' warned the white wolf in the wee.

Lovely Lenny laughing loudly laying in Alaska.

The puddle-piddler piddled a puddle of piddle-tastic pee.

Lenny is lost! Lenny is lost in Alaska. Help him find his way through the maze.

A Puddle of Piddle: In the story, 'Wee? It Wasn't Me!' Lenny slips in something wet and yellow and smelly in the snowy ground. It's WEE! Can you follow the instructions to make your own snowy puddle of piddle?

1. Add two parts cornflour (cornstarch) to one part water.
2. Mix the ingredients in bowl.
3. Add food colouring. What colour will your puddle of piddle be?
4. Choose some washable toys. Who's going to slip in your puddle of piddle?

Ice lollies: In winter, Alaska is covered in ice and snow. How about making your own ice lollies? Here's a great recipe from BBC Good Food

Milkshake ice pops recipe | BBC Good Food

- 405ml can light condensed milk
- 1 tsp vanilla bean paste
- 1 ripe chopped banana
- 10 strawberries or 3 tbsp chocolate hazelnut spread
- STEP 1

Pour the light condensed milk into a food processor and add the vanilla bean paste and chopped banana. Whizz until smooth. Add either the strawberries or chocolate hazelnut spread and whizz again.

- STEP 2

Divide the mixture between 4 paper cups, cover with foil, then push a lolly stick through the foil lid of each cup until you hit the base. Freeze for 4 hrs or until solid. Will keep in the freezer for 2 months.

Make your own Lenny: Draw your own picture of Lenny, with a separate arm and tail. Colour and cut out Lenny's body parts, then use a hole punch and paper fasteners to attach them together. You have made your own waving Lenny!

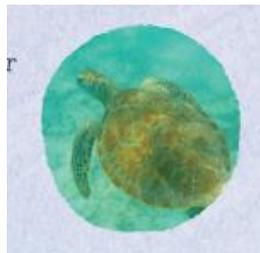

Whose wee could it be?! Match these piddle-tastic facts to the animals in the book.

1. Like all birds, this creature poos and wees at the same time.
2. Males lift their legs to wee so they can reach nice and high – at nose level!
3. This animal wees through its mouth, swishing water around to expel waste. Tasty!
4. To attract females, this animal sprays wee on its beard, chest and front legs!
